ADD/A (Colonel White)

5 May 1952

1. Ed Saunders says that the Bureau of the Budget is extremely anxious to know what site we propose for our new building. I told him to tell them that we could not give them a firm decision at this time and that we would discuss it with Mr. Wolf when he returned on Wednesday. [REDACTED] has the information from Public Buildings Service on the present site but it is inadequate to make a firm determination. John will have his own best estimate ready, however, on Wednesday for Mr. Wolf's consideration.

It was agreed that we would advance $1,500 and that the division chief would work out a procedure later as to how much the Agency could pay, etc. I signed off on the advance. [REDACTED] had already approved of the advance [REDACTED] both thought was all right. I disagreed and thought that too much was being placed on security in this instance and said that as a matter of policy I thought incidents of this nature should be signed off on by the DD/A. It was also agreed that the woman would be [REDACTED]
